

New Directions in Poverty Finance: Village Banking Revisited. By Craig Churchill ’86 et al. The Small Enterprise Education and Promotion Network, 2002. 140 pp. $35. A survey of key issues in contemporary microfinance based on village banking, including guidelines for institutions to turn their principles into good practice.

Psychology, 4th ed. By Saul Kassin, Massachusetts Professor of Psychology. Prentice Hall, 2004. 832 pp. $97.33. An undergraduate introductory text encouraging students to discover, experience and debate the methods and findings of psychological research and actively learn to think like psychologists.

Doubly Chosen: Jewish Identity, the Soviet Intelligentsia, and the Russian Orthodox Church. By Judith Deutsch Kornblatt ’77. University of Wisconsin Press, 2004. 200 pp. $29.95. A detailed study of a unique cultural and religious phenomenon in post-Stalinist Russia—the conversion of thousands of Russian Jewish intellectuals to Orthodox Christianity in the 1960s and 1980s.

Robert Rauschenberg: Breaking Boundaries. By Robert S. Mattison ’77. Yale University Press, 2003. 277 pp. $50. Examines selected works with the aim of understanding his procedures, the meaning of his art and reasons behind his artistic choices.

Investment Leadership: Building a Winning Culture for Long-Term Success. By Jim Ware ’76. John Wiley & Sons, 2003. 352 pp. $49.95. Identifies elements of leadership that significantly contribute to an investment firm’s sustainable success.