Williams College

Reunion Weekend Seminars

June 12 and 13, 2003

All lectures will take place in Brooks Rogers Auditorium, located in Bernhard Music Center, with the exception of President Schapiro’s “Dialogue with Alumni,” which will be in Chapin Hall.

Thursday, June 12

1 PM  Slavery or States' Rights: What Caused the American Civil War? with Charles Dew ’58, Charles R. Keller Professor of History

2:15 PM  Saving the Everglades and Florida's Other Endangered Natural Areas: Can panthers and manatees survive another ten years of rapid growth and change? with Bob Bendick ’68, Director, Southeast Division, The Nature Conservancy

3:30 PM  What is Jazz? with Ernest Brown, Professor of Music

Friday, June 13

9 AM  A Log for the New Century: The Tutorial Program at Williams with Steve Fix, Robert G. Scott ’68 Professor of English

10:15 AM  Life, Love, and Misadventures on the Last American Frontier with Nan Elliot ’73, Alaskan author, journalist and filmmaker

11:30 AM  Lessons of the Iranian Revolutions with Bill Darrow, Jackson Professor of Religion

1:45 PM  Inclusion Informs Form: Contemporary Architecture in Historical Context

Cecil Baker ’63

3:00 PM  Teaching Ethics in the Post-Enron Era - the 25th Reunion Lecture with Ken Bertsch ’78, Vice President and Director, Corporate Governance, Moody’s Investors Service; Todd Eckerson ’78, Dean of Faculty at Westminster School; and Larry Mitchell ’78, John Theodore Fey Research Professor of Law at George Washington University

4:15 PM  Dialogue with 16th President Morton Owen Schapiro