

IFREE Undergraduate Workshop in Experimental Economics

at The University of Alabama

May 20-23, 2020

The Department of Economics, Finance, and Legal Studies at The University of Alabama welcomes applications for our undergraduate workshop in experimental economics. The workshop is designed to introduce undergraduate students (entering their senior year) to the use of research experiments to understand economic behavior.

Dr. Joy
Buchanan

Labor
Markets

Dr. Cary
Deck

Cognitive Load

Dr. Paan
Jindapon

Risk
Attitudes

Dr. Erik
Johnson

Auctions &
Emotions

The University of Alabama workshop will provide food and housing for workshop participants while in Tuscaloosa. To help offset travel costs, workshop participants will earn cash while participating in economic experiments during the workshop.

Dr. Laura Razzolini

Public
Goods

Dr. Mark
Schneider

Decision Making

Dr. Mark
Van Boening

Law &
Arbitration

Dr. Matt
Van Essen

Game
Theory

University of Alabama faculty, along with faculty from Samford University and the University of Mississippi will teach modules covering a variety of topics. Each module will consist of an experiment and a discussion of the behavioral results.

To apply, please send the following materials electronically to Dr. Cary Deck (cdeck@cba.ua.edu) by April 1st.

- 1) A cover letter (max 1,000 words) explaining why you want to attend the workshop.
- 2) A resume.
- 3) A letter of recommendation from a professor.

Funding for the workshop is provided through a grant from the International Foundation for Research in Experimental Economics (learn more about IFREE at <http://ifreeweb.org/>).

Culverhouse
College of Business

The Interactive Decision Experiment Lab