

Alumni Spotlight:

Lisa Tenerowicz '88 earned her Bachelor's Degree in Economics, then went off to teach History and AP Economics at a private high school in Connecticut. After ten years of teaching, she attended Boston College Law School, where she earned her Juris Doctor in 2002. After a number of years in private practice, Lisa returned to an educational setting, where she now works on civil litigation and academic and faculty affairs at Boston University. Lisa's career path illustrates the wide variety of things you can do and jobs you can hold with a degree in Economics!

